

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OF THE
SOCIETY for PROMOTING
CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

THE Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge were for many Years engaged in carrying on such Designs as they judged might promote the Interests of true Religion, and the Honour of Almighty GOD, by whose Blessing this good Work has been continually prospering in their Hands; but finding that their Designs were not so generally known as they could wish, and consequently not so much encouraged as it was presumed they would be, when further known; they thereupon resolved not only to publish an Account of them, but also to communicate to the World, from year to year, their Proceedings, and the State of their Affairs.

3-20-52 nlf

THIS SOCIETY consists partly of SUBSCRIBING, and partly of CORRESPONDING Members; who, before they can be chosen, must be recommended in the Form N<sup>o</sup> I. in the Appendix. Of the former you have a complete List under the same Number in the Appendix. They subscribe such Annual Sums as every one thinks proper, towards supporting the Expences of the Society; and have their regular Meetings, in which all Business relating thereto is transacted. And as most of these, when this Society was first formed, lived in or near London, they were then, and until A. D. 1727, called RESIDING Members. The latter are such Persons in Great Britain and Ireland, and other Protestant Countries, as are chosen to correspond with the Society, on purpose to acquaint them with the State of Religion in their Neighbourhood; to suggest such Methods of doing Good as occur to them; to distribute Bibles, with such religious, as well as useful Books, as shall be approved of, and recommended by the Society; and to remit any occasional Benefactions, which they themselves are pleased to contribute, or collect from well disposed Christians.

BUT for the better understanding the Nature and Designs of this Society, it is thought convenient to premise a short Narrative of its Rise and Progress.

1698. — It was about the latter End of the Year 1698, when a few Gentlemen formed themselves into a Voluntary Society: and as such, they with Unanimity and Zeal went on together in promoting the real and practical Knowledge of true Religion, by such Methods as appear'd to them, from time to time, to be most conducive to that End, till towards the Conclusion clusion of the Year 1701; when, at their Instance, 1701.

 a Charter was obtained from King WILLIAM III.
 whereby all the then Subscribing Members of this Society, with other Persons of Distinction in Church and State, were Incorporated for the better carrying Of the Incorporated Society on that Branch of their Designs which related to the for Propagation Plantations, Colonies, and Factories beyond the Seas, of the Gospel in belonging to the Kingdom of England; from which Foreign Parts.
 time that excellent Work has, by the Divine Blessing, been successfully conducted by that Corporation.

BUT their Charter being limited to Foreign Parts, The Incorporated and the Business of that Corporation being hitherto being limited confin'd to the British Plantations in America; most to the British of the Original Members of our Voluntary Society Plantations, still continued to carry on, in that Capacity, their the Original more extensive Designs for advancing the Honour of Members con-
 GOD, and the Good of Mankind, by promoting tinue as a Vo- luntary Society.
 Christian Knowledge, both at Home and in other Parts of the World, by the best Methods that should offer. They are therefore a Society distinct from this Corporation, and known by the Name of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.

THEIR principal Methods were the same as they had been before. The FIRST was to procure and encourage the erecting of CHARITY-SCHOOLS, in all Parts of the Kingdom: and that those Schools might answer the true Purposes for which they were erected, the Society have not been wanting (in their Correspondence with such of their Members as have been concern'd in the Support and Management thereof) to recommend at all Times, that, together with Religious and Useful Instruction, Care should be taken, and all proper Means used, to inure the Children of the Poor to Industry and Labour, that so they may become good Christians, loyal and useful Subjects, and be willing, as well as fit to be employ'd, not only in Trades or Services, but also in Husbandry, Navigation, or any other Business, that shall be thought of most Use and Benefit to the Publick. With these Views the Society printed and dispersed such a Set of Rules for the good Order and Government of these Schools, as had been approved of by the Archbishops and Bishops, who directed, that the same should be observed within their respective Dioceses. But what Care they have taken, and what they have done in these Particulars, will appear from N<sup>o</sup> II. in the Appendix.

Bibles, Prayer-Books, &c. dispersed.

ANOTHER Method was to disperse, both at Home and Abroad, Bibles, Prayer-Books, and divers Sorts of Religious Tracts: and accordingly they have, by the Assistance of their Members, dispersed an incredible Number of them, in such a Manner as they have Reason to hope has tended to the great Increase of the Knowledge and Practice of our holy Religion. These Books and Tracts (of which there is a Catalogue in the Appendix, N<sup>o</sup> III.) are to be had by their own Members on the Terms there set down.

THESE are the General Designs of this Society: and though their certain Income towards supporting them be but small, yet they have hitherto been enabled by their own Annual Subscriptions, and the Legacies or other casual Benefactions of well disposed Persons, to raise a Fund sufficient to carry them on successfully from year to year at a very considerable Expence: and they still trust to the Blessing of GOD, and the Zeal of their Members, that such good Works will never fail, to flourish and abound for lack lack of Liberal Supplies from Charitable Christians.

BESIDE these General Designs, the Society undertook in the Year 1710 the Management of such Charities as were, or should be put into their Hands, for the Support and Enlargement of the PROTESTANT MISSION, then maintained by the King of Denmark at Tranquebar in the EAST-INDIES, for the Conversion of the Heathen in those Parts. Accordingly they, from time to time, assisted the Missionaries there with Money, a Printing Press, Paper, and other Necessaries, (as they were enabled) till the Year 1728; when, upon a Proposal made by the Reverend Mr Schultz, one of the Danish Missionaries, to remove to Fort St George, and there begin a new Mission, for the Conversion of the Heathen at Madras, the Society engaged for the Support of the same, though at an Expence that did then far exceed their Ability, trusting to the Goodness and Blessing of Almighty G.O.D; which Expence has been since greatly increased by an Addition of Missionaries, as well as the Enlargement of the Mission to Cudulore near Fort St David, another English Settlement; by the Erection of a Mission and a School at Calcutta in Bengal, for the Instruction of Children in Writing, Reading, and the Principles of Christianity; and lately by the Establishment of another Mission at Tirutschinapally, the Capital of the Kingdom of Madura, an inland Country in East India. However, the Society cheerfully rely upon the same Wise and Gracious Providence, which has hitherto wonderfully blessed this, and all their other Undertakings, to raise up such a true Christian Spirit, as will abundantly supply all their Wants; such a Spirit, as shewed itself in the late Mr Professor Francke, of Hall in Saxony, and still animates 1720.

New Testaments, Psalters, Catechisms, and Abridgment of the History of the Bible, printed in Arabick.

IN the Year 1720, the Society extended their Regard to the Greek Church in Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia, Arabia, and Egypt. To this End they published Proposals for Printing here, with a new Set of Types, the New Testament and Psalter, in Arabick: and were enabled, by the Blessing of GOD, on the Recommendation of the Bishops, joined to the Charity and Zeal of their own Members, to procure an Edition of above 6000 Psalters, and 10000 Testaments, as also of 5000 Catechetical Instructions, with an Abridgment of the History of the Bible annexed, at so large an Expence as the Sum of 2976 l. 1 s. 6½d.; to which His late Majesty King George I. was a bountiful Contributor, by a gracious Benefaction of Five Hundred Pounds. 5898 Psalters, 4246 New Testaments, and 2248 Catechetical Instructions, with the Abridgment aforesaid, have been already sent to those Parts, into Persia by means of their Correspondents in Russia, or into India through the Hands of their Missionaries; and the rest are reserved to be sent as Occasion shall offer.

THE Society having had the Pleasure to see the Success of the Endeavours used in many Towns and Villages, for employing the Poor and their Children, by setting up WORK-HOUSES; They (that nothing might be wanting to encourage the Prosecution Prosecution of so useful a Design) did in the Year 1725 cause a Collection of the best Accounts of such ~~Work-houses~~ <sup>Work-Houses</sup> to be published; which was reprinted with very large Additions, in 1733; in order to recommend and forward, throughout the Kingdom, the Execution of the same Scheme, wherein a particular Regard ought always to be had to such an Education of poor Children, as may, by bringing them up in the Faith, Knowledge, and Obedience of the Gospel, prove, through the Grace of God, the most effectual Means to make them good Men, and useful to their Country, as well as truly happy in the Life that now is, and in that which is to come.

In the Beginning of the Year 1732, the Society, 1732. when they heard the melancholy Account of the Sufferings of the Protestants in Saltzburg, having first obtained His Majesty's Leave, resolved upon doing all that lay in their Power to raise Collections <sup>Saltzburg</sup> for their persecuted Brethren. To this End, in <sup>Exiles relieved.</sup> June the same Year, they published An Account of the Sufferings of the persecuted Protestants in the Archbishoprick of Saltzburg, &c. and afterwards published A further Account of their Sufferings, &c. with an Extract of the Journals of M. Von Reck, the Commissary of the first Transport of Saltzburgers to Georgia; and of the Ministers that accompanied them thither, 1733. These Accounts, being enforced by the generous Example of many Noble and Honourable Persons, as also by liberal Contributions, and earnest Exhortations from the Right Reverend the Bishops, and their Clergy, had, through God's Blessing, so good an Effect upon the Minds of charitable and well disposed Christians of every Rank and Denomination, that the Society, besides making many large Remittances to Germany, were enabled to send over to the English Colony in Georgia in the Years 1733, 1734, 1735, and 1741, Four Transports, consisting of more than two Hundred Protestant Emigrants, chiefly Saltzburgers; who, with two Missionaries and a Schoolmaster, settled by themselves at Ebenezer; and there live in a contented, comfortable, and hopeful Way, upon such Lands as have been assigned to them by the Trustees for Establishing the said Colony.

THE great Expence of these Transports, and the many extraordinary Charges that were necessary for the Support and Encouragement of this Infant Settlement, together with 100 l. a Year as a Salary for their Two Missionaries and Schoolmaster, had so far reduced the Charities belonging to this Branch of the SOCIETY'S Designs, that they had nothing left to answer any future Wants and Contingencies, excepting 2500 l. New South Sea Annuities, which had been purchased as a standing Fund for paying the aforesaid Annual Salary to the Missionaries and Schoolmaster. But the lowering of public Interest so affected the Society, that they knew not how to make good this Annual Salary to the Missionaries and Schoolmaster, towards which they continued to receive little or no Assistance. Being desirous, however, that this good Work should not fail for want of Support, they, out of the Money raised by the Annual Subscriptions of their Members and other Benefactions, purchased £833 : 6 : 8 New South Sea Annuities to be added to that Fund; trusting that the good Providence of God, which hath hitherto wonderfully blessed all their Endeavours, vours, will raise them up Benefactors to supply what may on this Account be wanting towards the several Branches of their charitable Designs.

IN the Year 1743, the Society undertook a new Edition of the Bible in the Welch Language, with the Common Prayer, and Psalms in Metre: and finished it in 1748, by an Impression of Fifteen Thousand Copies, which they dispersed in the most prudent, useful and extensive Manner they could. But such was the Zeal and Thirst of good Christians throughout Wales, for having the Holy Scriptures in that Language, wherein alone they could possibly read them; that this Impression (large as it was) fell exceedingly short of the universal Demand that was made for it. For which Reason, the Society, from a compassionate and Christian Regard to their Wants, put into the Press another Edition of the Bible, consisting of the same Number of Copies; as likewise of Five Thousand New Testaments, and as many Common Prayer Books in the same Language. This second Edition also was, by the Blessing of God, happily finished, and distributed.

THE Society likewise, at the earnest Desire of the Natives of Wales, lately undertook a Third Edition of the Old and the New Testaments, in a large Octavo Size, with the Marginal References; and Twenty Thousand Copies were printed, with a larger Letter than that which was used in the former Editions. The Charge of this Impression was so great, that the Society, besides sinking all the Fund which they had in hand towards that Design, incurred a Debt of above Two Thousand Pounds: And though the latter is at present discharged, it is expected however, that all Persons who apply for Books will be punctual and expen-ditions in their Payments for the same, that the Society may the sooner replace the Stock, in order to answer any future Demands of the Principality.

1763. In the Year 1763, the Society gave out Proposals for Proposal for Printing the Bible, &c. in the Manks Language. Printing Bibles, Common Prayers, and other Religious Books in the Vulgar Tongue of the Isle of Mann: what Encouragement they have hitherto met with, and how far they have proceeded in this Work, may be seen in the Appendix. And as this Design is still carrying on, the SOCIETY hope that the same good Principles of Benevolence, which have hitherto assisted them, will continue to operate, till they are enabled to compleat this extensive and useful Work.

BEFORE we conclude this general Account, it may not be improper to mention some very considerable and standing Benefactions to this Society.

Mrs Palmer's Legacy of 4000*l.* in 1728. 1. THE first is a most generous Legacy of Four Thousand Pounds, which was left to them by Mrs Elizabeth Palmer in 1728, and is still preserved entire in the Publick Funds; viz. 2800*l.* in New South Sea Annuities, and 1200*l.* in South Sea Stock; the Interest of it only being from year to year applied to such Branches of their Designs as most need it.

The Gifts of Mr Edwin Belke, a Gentleman of Kent. 1734. 2. THE second is a free Gift in the Year 1734, by Mr Edwin Belke, a Gentleman of Kent, deceased; who left to the Society Ten Acres of Land in Romney Marsh in Kent, now let at 10*l. per Annum*, free of all Taxes and other Deductions; and likewise 1050*l.* New South Sea Annuities, towards defraying the Expence of distributing, gratis, Bibles, New Testaments, and other Religious Books, under the Inspection of the Society.

1737. THE same Gentleman did also, in the Year 1737, give the Society Eighty Pounds New South Sea Annuities; nuities; the Dividends whereof are to be laid out from time to time (at the Direction of the Society) in Books for propagating the Christian Religion in the East-Indies, or other Parts of the World.

3. THE next is a Legacy of the Reverend Doctor Rev. Dr Carter deceased, late Vice-Provost of Eton, ter's Legacy. whose Executors (besides the Payment of 436 l. 3 s. 9 d. in Money) have also transferred to the Society 295 l. 5 s. 11 d. in New South Sea Annuities, and 110 l. in Bank Stock. The former of these Articles has been since made up 300 l. and the latter 200 l. for a Fund to answer, by the Annual Interest thereof, the Uses directed by the Testator's Will, particularly that of printing or publishing, in the Eastern Languages, Bibles, Old and New Testaments, or what Part thereof the Society shall judge proper.

4. THE fourth is a Legacy of Samuel Percivall, Esq; Mr Percivall. of Pendarves in Cornwal, of 1000 l. which was 1760. bequeathed to the Reverend Dr William Stackhouse, and Mr James Dunn, in Trust only and for the entire Benefit of promoting the Propagation of Christian Knowledge in foreign Parts: Which Sum the said Trustees paid to the Society on the above mentioned Trust; and they have appropriated it to the Support of the Protestant Mission in the East-Indies.

5. The last is a generous Benefaction of 600 l. from 1772. an unknown Hand, which, according to the Direction of the Donor, has been laid out in the Purchase of 700 l. New South Sea Annuities, and added to the Fund for the Support of the East India Mission.

THESE are the general Designs wherein the Society are at present engaged; the particular State whereof will be published every Year: and what it now is, together with their Receipts and Disbursements from the former Audit, 29 April, 1773. to their late Audit, 28 April, 1774. may be seen in the Appendix, N<sup>o</sup> V.

The TREASURERS of this SOCIETY.

THE Rev. Dr OWEN, Rector of St Olave, Hart-street, Prebendary of Hereford, and F. R. S. is Treasurer for all Benefactions to the Designs of the SOCIETY in general.

HENRY HOARE Esq; Banker in Fleetstreet, is Treasurer

 for Packets of Books sent to any Members.

The Rev. Mr THOMAS BROUGHTON is Secretary to the Society.

Mr JOHN ROBINSON Clerk and Messenger.

Letters may be directed to the Reverend Mr Broughton; at the Society's House, N<sup>o</sup> 105. in Hatton Garden, Holborn.

WHEREAS the necessary Affairs of the Society do often call both their Secretary and Messenger abroad, it is hereby desired of all Members, or their Friends, who have any Business with them, that they would come, or send to the Society's House in Hatton Garden, Holborn, between the Hours of nine in the Morning and two in the Afternoon, where Attendance will be given every Day, excepting Saturday.

N. B. Tuesday is the only Day whereon (according to the Standing Orders of the Society) their Committee meet to give Directions for answering the Letters received, and for sending any Packet that shall be desired.

N<sup>o</sup> II.

THAT the ~~Charity-Schools~~ might answer the true Purpose for which they were erected, this Society have, in their Circular Letters to their Correspondents, recommended that, with their Instructions in Religion and Piety, they should join all proper Methods of inuring the Children to Labour and Industry; and in their Circular Letter A. D. 1712, they have these Words:

“ AND because some have apprehended, that the “ placing so many of them out Apprentices to Ma“ nual Trades, as is now generally done, may oc“ casion, in Time, a Want of Servants, especially “ in Husbandry; the Society recommend it to your “ Consideration, whether the bringing up the Chil“ dren to Husbandry, or putting them out to Ser“ vices, at Sea, or in sober Families, may not be “ more useful to the Publick, and no less beneficial
 “ to themselves.

Circular
 Letter.
 1712.

IN the Year 1719, they recommended the same Thing to their Correspondents, in the following Words.

“ NEXT to improving the Minds of the Poor
 “ in all necessary Christian Knowledge, the Society
 “ have desired, and do again earnestly intreat all “ their Correspondents, to use their utmost Endea“ vours to get some kind of Labour added to the “ Instruction given to Children in the Charity “ Schools;

1719.

“ Schools; as Husbandry in any of its Branches, “ Spinning, Sewing, Knitting, or any other useful “ Employment; to which the particular Manufac“ tures of their respective Countries may lead them:
 “ This will bring them to an Habit of Industry, “ as well as prepare them for the Business by which “ they are afterwards to subsist in the World, and “ effectually obviate an Objection against the Cha“ rity Schools, that they tend to take poor Children “ off from those servile Offices which are necessary
 “ in all Communities, and for which the wise Go“ vernor of the World has by his Providence de“ signed them.

Circular
 Letter
 1720.

“ THE best Means of employing the Poor has “ always had a Share in the Thoughts of the wisest “ Men in this Kingdom; and the present State of “ Affairs, with respect to our Trade, seems to re“ quire a Continuance of your Care and Applica“ tion, to promote those Employments among the “ Children educated in Charity Schools, which may “ be most for the Service of the Publick; so that “ beside Reading, Writing, and Arithmetick, and “ instructing them in the Principles and Rules of “ our holy Religion, they ought also to be inured
 “ to some sort of profitable Labour or Business.

“ It has been observed by a worthy Correspond“ ing Member, that where, in the Want of other “ Labour, the Children in the Country go a Mile “ or two to School, even that has contributed to “ make them robust and active; and that Gar- “ dening, Plowing, Harrowing, or other servile La“ bour every other Day for their Parents, has been “ no Prejudice to their Progress in Learning.

“ 'Tis

" 'Tis not easy to prescribe such an Employ as " would suit all Parts of the Kingdom; and there" fore it must be left to the Prudence of those " who are intrusted with the Management of Cha" rity Schools, to chuse such Employments for " the Children, as they shall judge to be most prac" ticable in their respective Places; and if any in " your Neighbourhood have been so happy as to " fall into a proper Method for employing poor
 " Children, you are desired to signify it in as parti" cular a manner as you can; that when the So" ciety are furnished with a greater Variety of such " Methods, they may be communicated to the " Publick for general Practice.

Circular
 Letter
 1722.

" AND tho' the Manner of employing the Poor
 " may, at first, be attended with some Difficulty,
 " by reason of the Variety of Manufactures in the " Kingdom, and the Materials necessary for them,
 " which all Places do not equally afford; yet
 " whereever an Attempt has been made (tho' by " Means perhaps at first not appearing very proba" ble) it has seldom failed of producing some " good Effect: for notwithstanding the Produce of " the Manufactures, wherein the Poor are employ" ed, should happen to be but small, yet if they " are kept from Idleness and Beggary, and inured to " a sober and industrious way of Living, the good " Effects thereof, as well to themselves as to the " Publick, will fully compensate all the Pains that " shall be taken therein.

1725.

" THE general Usefulness of Husbandry to this " Nation, the real Want there has been of Persons " to be employed in it, and the Mortality that has " lately happened in many Counties, especially " among

Circular
 Letter
 1729.

“ among the lower and more laborious sort of “ People, are, in the Opinion of the Society, all of “ them, very good Reasons to engage their Mem“ bers to use their utmost Endeavours that poor “ Children may be bound out Apprentices to that “ Business; which would silence one of the most “ popular Clamours that has been raised against “ Charity Schools. This Concern therefore, which “ so nearly affects the common Interest of our “ Country, is particularly recommended by the So“ ciety to all their Members.

FROM these Extracts it will appear, how careful this Society has always been to obviate the common Objections made against the Charity Schools, that they only breed up Children in Idleness and Pride; and it must not be omitted, that as early as the Year 1712, they particularly recommended, “ That however these Children are disposed of, it “ will be very necessary beforehand to teach them “ that great Lesson of true Humility, which our “ Saviour has prescribed to all that will be his Dis“ ciples; lest the Advantages they receive from a “ pious Education, should incline them to put too “ great a Value upon themselves; and therefore “ that the Masters be often put in mind of guard“ ing the Children under their Care, as much as “ possible, against such dangerous Conceits; and in “ order thereunto, to instruct them very carefully “ in the Duties of Servants, and Submission to “ Superiors.

AND knowing that it is of the highest Importtance to the Welfare of the Charity Schools, to remove all Occasion of Complaint against them as Nurseries of Disaffection to the Government, They acquainted

acquainted their Members in Town and Country,
 " That his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury
 " having heard some Complaints against the Con" duct of certain Teachers in these Schools, on this " Head, did, in 1716, write a Letter to the Trustees " of the Schools in and about London, earnestly ex" horting them rigorously to animadvert upon all,
 " whether Children or Teachers, who either appear,
 " or suffer them to appear at any time in publick,
 " to affront the Government, and bear a Part in those
 " Tumults and Riots, which are so great a Scandal,
 " as well as Prejudice, to the good Order and Peace
 " of the Realm. And likewise, if there be any Ca- " techisms or Institutions taught in any of these " Schools, that meddle with political or party Prin- " ciples, that they ought immediately to be thrown " aside, as pernicious to the original Design of these
 " pious Nurseries.

SOME time after this, his Grace, in a particular manner, recommended it to the Trustees of the Charity Schools in and about London; " To require
 " all the Masters and Mistresses under their Di" rection, not only to take the Oaths to the Go" vernment before their Admission, but at the " Time of their Admission to subscribe to some such " solemn Promise, or Declaration, as the follow" ing, viz. That they do heartily acknowledge his Ma-

 " rightful King of these Realms; and will to the " utmost of their Power educate the Children com- " mitted to their Charge, in a true Sense of their " Duty to him as such: That they will not, by any
 " Words or Actions, do any thing whereby to lessen
 " their Esteem of, or their Obedience to the present
 " Govern-

*“ Government : That upon all publick Days, when “ their Children may be likely to appear among any “ disorderly Persons, they will do their best to keep them “ in, and severely punish them, if they shall bear of “ their running into any Tumults, or publick Meet“ ings, contrary to the good Order of such Schools
 “ and Scholars.”*

SEVERAL other Prelates have earnestly pressed the like Exhortations, in their Sermons at the Anniversary Meetings of the Charity Schools, as well as on other Occasions; and the Society think it incumbent on them to use all their Interest to procure a general Conformity to his Grace's and their Lordships Sentiments in this Matter, as of the last Importance to the Welfare of the Charity Schools; and therefore intreat all their Correspondents to do their utmost to remove all Occasions of Complaint, as they value the Prosperity of these Schools.

A PROPOSAL made by the SOCIETY to the Trustees of the CHARITY-SCHOOLS, for adding Work to the Learning usually given to the Children.

THE Instructing of Youth, and Providing for the Poor and Impotent, are such obvious Duties, that they meet with universal Approbation; but the most proper Means to attain that good End, are often disputed.

THE Erecting of Charity Schools has most certainly laid a good Foundation for the first; and the late excellent Law relating to Work-Houses, has put it in the Power of every Parish in a much better Manner to provide for the latter.

As to the Charity Schools, it must needs be acknowledged, that those excellent Persons who first form'd, and they who have since conducted that good Work, ought ever to be mentioned with Honour: And now, that such Schools are established in most Parts of the Kingdom, it is much to be wished that some Means could be contrived to render them still more useful, and effectually to answer the good Purposes of their Institution.

IT is conceived, that if the Children educated in Charity Schools were employed in some such Business as they are capable of, it would be no Hindrance to their Learning, and might have a very good Effect, by insuring them early to Industry; but what that Employment should be, and the Manner of conducting it, must be left to the Managers of the several Schools, who are the best Judges of what is most proper and convenient to be done.

SUPPOSE England and Wales to contain Ten thousand Parishes, and that but Ten Persons in every Parish, one with another, were by some Method employed, who were perfectly idle before, then the whole number of Persons so set to work would be One Hundred thousand, who, if they work but 300 Days in a Year, and one with another earn'd but a Half-Penny a Day, the Produce of their Labour at the Year's end would amount to 62,500 Pounds.

Coarse Wool,
Flax, or Hemp to be spun in the Charity
Schools.

THE Spinning of coarse Wool, Flax, or Hemp, is a Thing easily learnt, and the Waste which will be always made by Beginners won't amount to much. And if it were possible so to contrive it, that the Parents of the Children might reap some Advantage from what is so earned, it would be a great Inducement for them to keep the Children to their Business; and if the Undertaking succeeded, it is to be hoped, that many good People would send in coarse Materials to be worked up for the Benefit of the School.

'Tis impossible to give minute and particular Directions for conducting this Undertaking, and therefore that must be left to the Managers, who will best judge what is necessary to be done; but till the School is very well got into some Method, the best way will most certainly be to keep the Business in a small compass.

Tho' the Spinning of Wool, and Flax, or Hemp, is proposed, as most advantageous, yet where this is found impracticable, the Children should be employ'd in some other Way, and always have what they earn for their Encouragement: that would make them diligent, and induce all good Christians to assist in an Undertaking, which so much conduces to the Glory of God, and the Good of Mankind.

There having sometimes happened much Difficulty in obtaining a Legacy given to the Charity-Schools, by reason of some Defect in expressing such Bequest; it seems convenient to set down how such Legacy may be so expressed, as to prevent any Scruple about Paying it; which may be done in this Manner, viz.

ITEM, I A. B. do give and bequeath unto G. H. of the Sum of Pounds,
to the Intent, and on Trust, that he do pay the same to the Treasurers for the Time being of the Charity-School, for Teaching [poor Children, or poor Boys, or poor Girls,] to Read, &c. in the Parish of in the City of or in the County of for the Use of the said School.

Letter of Dr EDMUND GIBSON, late Lord Bishop of London, to the Clergy of his Diocese, dated Whitehall, Apr. 3, 1740.

GOOD BROTHER,

THE Decay of Piety and Religion, and the Increase of Sin and Vice, are so visible in our Days, notwithstanding the Endeavours of the Parochial Clergy to prevent them; that no additional Expedients ought to be omitted, which may help, in any Measure, to preserve among our People a Sense of Duty, and a Spirit of Devotion.

ONE of these Expedients is, the putting into their Hands, as Occasion shall be found, some short and plain Tracts upon Religious Subjects; such as being short, they are like to read, or may easily procure to be read to them; and being also plain, they cannot fail of understanding; and moreover, being always at hand, and read over often, they will naturally make a deeper Impression upon their Minds, than Instructions and Admonitions, either from the Pulpit, or by Word of Mouth.

IT was with this View, that several Bishops, Clergymen, and other serious Persons among the Laity, did long since form themselves into a Society, for printing and dispersing such practical Tracts in great Numbers. And for the dispersing them more effectually, they have from time to time admitted, and continue to admit, several Persons in all Parts of the Kingdom, whom they call CORRESPONDING MEMBERS; and who are intitled to have a Supply of them, to be disposed of among such of the neighbouring Clergy or Laity as desire them; the Bound Books, mentioned in their Catalogue, at the prime Cost in Quires, the Society being at the Charge of Binding; and the Stitch'd Books, at one half of what is set down as the prime Cost of each; the other half of the Charge being born by the standing Subscriptions of the Members of the Society, and by other occasional Benefactions. And the Privilege of sending for and receiving those Books and small Tracts, on the Terms before mentioned; is common to all the CORRESPONDING MEMBERS, as such, whether they be SUBSCRIBERS or not; on Account of the Trouble they are content to take in answering the great Ends of the Society, by conveying their Tracts into many Hands, and on the same easy Terms; without any Advantage to themselves, besides the Pleasure of doing Good.

THIS Society has subsisted many Years, under the Name of The Society for promoting Christian Knowledge. And as, by their Endeavours in that Way, great Good has been already done to Religion, so much more would probably be done, if the Design, and their Methods of carrying it on, were more generally understood and attended to. And because some of the Clergy may not know that there is such a Society, and many others may be unacquainted with the true End and Manner of it; I desire that those in your Neighbourhood may have this Account of it communicated to them, as you have Opportunity. At the same time it is left to every one's Judgment, how far he has Occasion within his own Cure for such Assistances as these, to co-operate with his own Pastoral Labours.

I AM not without Hope, that when this Method of doing Service to Religion is known and considered, Persons who are of Ability, both among the Clergy and Laity, will be disposed to become Subscribing Members, or occasional Contributors; for the better Support of the Society in carrying on the Work, and to make the good Effects of it more and more extensive. And so, commending you and your Labours to the Blessing of God, I remain,

Sir, your faithful Friend and Brother,

EDM. LONDON.

SOCIETY'S Protestant Mission to EAST-INDIA, 1773.

THE SOCIETY, since the Publication of the last T Accounts, have received several Letters from their Missionaries in India, the Substance of which they proceed to communicate to their Members and the Publick in general.

The Reverend Messieurs Fabricius and Breitaupt, in a Madras
Letter dated Jan. 1773, open the Account of their Mission for the Year preceding with acknowledging the Mercy

Mercy of God in having preserved them and their Assistants, and granted Peace and Tranquillity to the Country; by means of which they had been able the better to preach the Gospel. The Increase of their Tamulian and Portuguese Congregations consisted of

Children born in the Congregation	- - - -	29
Heathens instructed and baptized	- - - -	17
Mohammedans (Slaves to English Masters) admitted likewise by Baptism	- - - -	2
Converts from Popery	- - - -	5

In all - 53

Including these, the Number of all those who from the first Establishment of the Mission had been brought to the Christian Protestant Faith was 5201.

As much as their Strength and other Engagements would permit, the Heathens round about them had been constantly invited to the Kingdom of God: they forbear however troubling the Society with a Narrative of their Discourses on these Occasions, for fear of being tedious; but cannot help mentioning an Event which may justly be considered as a Divine Judgment on the Pagans and their Idolatry, and which first displayed itself at Trypadi, a Place lying among the Hills to the North-West, whither innumerable Multitudes from all Parts of the Carnatick, and especially from Madras, annually resort on Pilgrimage in the Month of September, to perform their Worship and to make Offerings of Money, of which the Nabob takes the greatest Part, and generally farms the collecting of that Revenue for a considerable Sum. Here then great Crouds of People being assembled, according to Custom, scarce one half had returned, and these, not with Shouting and Rejoicing as at other Times, but with great Terror and Consternation: For after the People had performed formed their Ceremonies, and paid their Contributions to the Idol, a sudden Mortality broke out among them, and cut off several Thousands, partly at Trupadi, and partly in their Flight from thence, so that, according to Report, it was not possible to burn all the Bodies, but many were left for a Prey to the Birds and Beasts. This epidemical Disorder appeared afterwards at Madras, and in other Places: It consists in a violent Vomiting and Purging, of which the Patient dies the second or third Day, and may be termed the Indian Plague; the Contagion properly so called not being known in that Part of the World.

In the Course of the Year Twenty-four of their Congregation were gone into Eternity; of several of whom they think they have good Reason to trust that they are entered into that Rest which CHRIST has purchased for them. Concerning the Celebration of Divine Service and the Management of the Schools, every Thing is carried on in the same Manner as heretofore. With regard to their Circumstances, the Number of Widows and other Poor, and of Children whom they are obliged to find in Cloaths and Victuals as well as Schooling, is continually increasing a little, and the Price of Provisions rising from Year to Year. As for the outward Prospect of the Place where the Mission is settled, it is now more agreeable than before: there having been formerly next to the Village of Wepery, on the Side towards the City, nothing but their Church and Dwelling; whereas now several English People have built Houses in the Neighbourhood.

They write further that Mr Fabricius had been sent for twice to Sadras, and once to Pullicat; at both which Places He preached several Times, besides baptizing in all fifteen Children, and at Pullicat five Slaves instructed by a Catechist there, and examined by himself: At Sadras too he administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and on the Road, both going and coming, held several Discourses with the Heathens. He found it also necessary to go in September to Velore, where, in 1772, they stationed the Catechist Tasanak; who, when he was at Madras towards the End of August, expressed much Concern at having no proper Place to assemble the Christians there for Divine Service on Sundays, and for instructing the People at other Times; and represented the Want of such a Place as a great Hindrance to him in the Work of the Mission. Accordingly Mr Fabricius went to Velore, and on his Journey, which took him four Days in going and as many in returning; he discoursed the Heathens here and there in public Cbouldries and other Places. Many heard with much Attention what he delivered concerning the great Folly and Sin of Idolatry, and the Excellency of the Christian Religion. In Coveripawek he met with a Pandarum, who rejected all Idol-Worship; and asked Mr Fabricius to hear him say the Prayer which he every Day made to God. It was long, but full of the choicest Expressions of a Creature who honours and loves his Creator above all Things, and who acknowledges his own Sin and Vileness. Mr Fabricius was very much pleased with it, and told him that, if he prayed in that Manner with the Sincerity of his Heart, trusting to the Redeemer of Mankind who has made Satisfaction for our Sins, he would not fail of being accepted by God. He likewise invited the Pandarum to come and see him at Madras, and on his Return enquired again for him, but was informed that he was absent. The next Day after his Arrival at Velore he went with the Catechist into the Suburb, where he lives with his Family in a poor Habitation, and where he carried Mr Fabricius to several Persons, for the most part Popish Christians, some of whom acknowledged the Truth of the Protestant Faith. The Place, together with the whole Country, belongs to the Nabob; but the English have a Garrison there with a Regiment of Soldiers in it. The Catechist likewise brought to Mr Fabricius some Women baptized the Year before by Mr Gerické, and since married to Soldiers ; together with some other Christians come from Tirutschinapally, his own Family, and several Persons who had been instructed, but not yet christened. Mr Fabricius, both that Day and the next, which was Sunday, discoursed them all on the principal Points of Religion, and prayed with them. He afterwards enquired into the particular Circumstances of every one, ordered the Catechist to be diligent in instructing those who were not baptized, and gave him hopes that, God willing, he might come again after January to examine and christen them. The Commanding Officer of the Garrison, Colonel Lang, very kindly promised Mr Fabricius that, though he had no Power to dispose of any public Buildings in Velore, as they were entirely in the Possession of the Moors, he would take Care that the Catechist should have always a proper Place, in the empty House of one of the absent Officers, to assemble the People for Divine Service. Mr Fabricius likewise baptized the Catechist's Child, and administered the Sacrament to a few Persons. Several pious Soldiers, who had enjoyed the good Instructions of Mr Swartz at Tirutschinapally, came once or twice during his Stay at Velore, and were exhorted by him to be faithful to God and their Redeemer : And Colonel Lang, understanding that he was inclined to preach an English Sermon, ordered a Tent to be pitched on the Parade, where he read Prayers before the Garrison, and preached on Matt. iv. 5.

The Missionaries write further that the Printing of the Tamulian New Testament is just finished ; that, by means of some Benefactions, with which the Divine Providence had favoured them in India, added to those which they had received from Europe, the Wants of the Mission had been fully supplied ; and that a pious Portuguese Woman, who had formerly, for several Years, the Inspection of the Girls in the School, and had since married an English Gentleman in good Circumstances, had furnished the Church, among other Things, with a neat Pulpit, a Silver Bason for the Font, and a Silver Chalice for the Sacrament: She had likewise (without being solicited) contributed very largely towards casting a new Bell, to replace the old one which was cracked; and got painted in golden Letters, on the Wall over the Communion-Table; in Portugueze and Malabar, the Text, Come unto me, &c. Matt. xi. 28—30.

In a Letter of a prior Date, after returning the SOCIETY Thanks for their kind Presents, all of which were come to hand in good Condition, they request a new Screw and Nut for a Printing-Press, and a few other Articles, which have accordingly been sent them. And in another Letter, dated 28 Jan. 1773, they acknowledge the Receipt of the 500 Pagodas, granted to the SOCIETY in Dec. 1771 by the Honourable East India Company, payable out of their Treasury at Fort St George, which, at the Rate of 7*s. 10d.* per Pagoda, had amounted to 19*5*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.

Cuddalore.

The SOCIETY having signified their Desire that Mr Gerické would assist Mr Swartz as much as he could, consistently with the Duties of his own Mission, Messieurs Hutteman and Gerické acquaint them, in a Letter dated 31 Dec. 1772, that, agreeably to their Request, He had taken a Journey to Tiruschinapally in April preceding, where he had stayed almost two Months, while Mr Swartz was resident at Tanjour: In which Time, as well as on the Road, he had had frequent Opportunities of preaching the Gospel; which he had not been backward to improve. In the Account which they give of their Mission, they write that in the Course of the Year there had been received into the Tamulian Church twenty-one Adults, twelve of whom were converted from Paganism, and the rest from Popery. These Persons had been daily instructed for two Months both by the Missionaries and their Catechists, who hope their Labour will not have been in vain. Messieurs Hutteman and Gerické had likewise held:

held weekly Conversations with the Heathens, and laid before them the Necessity of turning to the one true God, through CHRIST the only Mediator between God and Man. That their Success does not answer their Wishes and Endeavours will be no wonder to those who know their Circumstances: Unsupported by any outward Authority and Assistance, despised by the proud Heathens and Mohammedans, hated and opposed by European Infidels; and perfect Strangers in a distant Pagan Country, it may easily be conceived what Obstacles they must meet with in the Discharge of their ministerial Functions; Obstacles under which they could not bear up, did they not trust in the Promises given to the faithful Servants of JESUS CHRIST, and feel, in some Measure, the internal Support of the blessed Spirit.

Twenty-two Infants had likewise been baptized, so that the whole Increase of their Congregation had been forty-three. Their Communicants had been commonly sixty-five. Seven Couple had been married according to the Rites of the Church; and upwards of forty Children had been taught in the Tamulian School. They had likewise (as appears from a Letter of a prior Date) established an English School, for the European Children of the Place, which they propose to manage in such a manner, that it may not be burdensome to the SOCIETY. The Number of Scholars amounted to thirty, and two Masters were employed in teaching them. From 9 to 10 one of the Missionaries catechizes the Children, and inspects the Labours of the Masters; and from 7 to 8 in the Evening expounds the New Testament, at which time many of the Inhabitants have Liberty to attend. Habacuc's Son, Christian, they had appointed Schoolmaster at Wandilpalaiam: Manoel, his Son-in-law, continued at Pulleiarkuppam; where he keeps School in the Morning, and in the Afternoon goes from Village to Village, and preaches the Gospel, or reads select Parts of the New Testament and other other religious Books printed at Madras and Tranquebar; and at the three great Festivals calls the Christians to Cuddalore to hear the Word of God, and receive the Sacrament. A few Days before the Date of the Missionaries Letter he had brought to them four Catechumens. The Catechist Habacuc visits the Christians daily from House to House, repeats with them the Sermons they hear on Sundays, enquires into their Lives and Conduct, and every Night brings his Account to the Missionaries, who call those who live disorderly, and admonish them in the Spirit of Meekness; if they continue refractory, exclude them from the Sacrament; and, if that does not reclaim them, separate them from the Communion of the Church. Rayapen, Isaac's Son, improves greatly, and is a faithful Labourer in the Malabar School: His Father likewise is a very useful Man, and, by bringing up his Children so well, has deserved greatly of the Mission.

In September Mr Gerické made a Tour for two Weeks into the Country, as far as Tirunamallur, seven Leagues distant from Cuddalore, and daily conversed on religious Subjects. Habacuc had taken the same Journey in January, particularly to visit the straggling Christians in those Parts.

Governor Falk of Colombo had made them a Present of 500 Palmeers, which were highly welcome to them, their Mission-Houses being greatly out of Repair. In the Course of the Year they had had a very severe Monsoon: In November it rained almost incessantly for ten Days, and the Atmosphere was so clouded, that they could scarce read in the Day-time. The Floods had done some Damage to the Rice-Fields, which had been increased by the blasting North-West Winds; so that it was feared the Crop, which at the Beginning promised fair, would fall very short. In the Months of June and July the Heat had been excessive, amounting sometimes to 97 Degrees of Farenheit's Thermometer, without any remarkable Alteration, except of 5 or 8 Degrees in the Night-time: At the same Time the

the Land-Wind blew terribly, and was very noxious, as it always is more or less.

The SOCIETY have received several Letters from the Reverend Mr Kiernander, and particularly one, dated 31 Dec. 1772, containing the chief Circumstances of his Mission for that Year, during which he had, through the Divine Mercy, enjoyed perfect Health; and, though his Assistant, the Reverend Mr Bento de Souza, had for a considerable Part of that Time been afflicted with Sickness, he was at length thoroughly recovered, and performed his Duty with Diligence and Chearfulness. Divine Service, both in the Portuguese and English Congregations, together with the Business of the School, had been continued in the Manner specified in former Accounts.

94: In all.

Among the 7 Adult Converts from Heathenism mentioned above, one was a Woman, a Native of Macassar, about 30 Years of Age, who came from Chinsura, and stayed at Calcutta upwards of two Months to be instructed: She had an earnest and serious Desire after the Knowledge of God and her Redeemer Jesus CHRIST, and received Instruction with an open Heart, testifying her Gratitude for the Divine Mercy and Goodness towards her. She had been since married to a Dutch Gentleman at Chinsura, and gave great Satisfaction to all by her Christian-like Behaviour. Another was a young Mohammedan Woman, who had been since married to a Soldier: The rest were of the Bengal Cast. Among the 11 Roman Catholics who had been received into the Protestant Church, the first was Mr Francis Joseph Hanson, a Popish Missionary, of whom Mr Kiernander had before given a particular Account, and of whom he further writes that, having engaged in the Company's Service, his Employers expressed themselves well satisfied with him. Another of these Converts was a Portuguese Woman, about 32 Years of Age, from Chandernagore, who had been for a considerable Time an Inhabitant of Calcutta, and was married to an European Carpenter. Her Son was one of the Out-Scholars, who used to read at Home in an Evening in the New Testament, from whence by degrees she derived some Knowledge, which, by the further Blessing of God, had brought her to a Resolution of renouncing the Errors of Popery, and coming over to the Protestant Church. Another was a Portuguese Man, an Inhabitant likewise of Calcutta, who some time before had a Desire to disengage himself from the Romish Communion, but had been continually hindered by his Wife: But she being since dead, he had accomplished his former Design, and had brought over with him two Daughters and a Son; the latter of whom is still one of the Out-Scholars. Others were Portuguese Women married to Protestant Husbands at Calcutta:

cutta: And on Nov. 29, being the first Sunday in Advent, the Reverend Mr Marcellino Joseph Ramalbete, a Romish Priest, publickly renounced Popery, on which Occasion a Sermon was preached by Mr Kiernander. This Person had been awakened about 4 Years before, when Mr Bento abjured, with whom he had had a long and intimate Acquaintance, and had since that Time secretly corresponded with him, and had read the Bible and other good Books with which Mr Kiernander had furnished him; till at last his Search after the Truth had been blest, having wrought in him a full Conviction of the Errors of the Romish Church, and a firm Resolution (which he had accordingly executed) of forsaking her Communion. There were likewise at Calcutta one or two more Priests, who, it was hoped, would give place to the Truth; and many other Persons of the same Persuasion had shewn a Desire of reading the Bible and other Protestant Books, among whom Mr Kiernander had accordingly distributed all he had to spare, and had written to Madras and Tranquebar for a fresh and larger Supply, and being in great Want of Common Prayer Books for the Use of the School, as well as of the English Congregation, he begs the SOCIETY would favour him with a greater Quantity every Year; a Request with which they have readily complied. To return to Mr Ramalbete. As he was desirous to preach the Gospel as the Truth is in Jesus, Mr Kiernander could find no Objection but the Means of supporting him: Trusting however that Divine Providence would obviate the Difficulty, and without adding any Charge to the SOCIETY, till their Pleasure could be known, he had made the Trial. Accordingly in the Month of December he preached to the Portuguese Congregation alternately with Mr Bento, and so continued till the Month of March 1773, when Mr Kiernander intended to send him up the Country as an itinerant Assistant Protestant Missionary, to labour for the Conversion of the Bengal Heathens and Papists, and, as might be requisite, to give his Assistance to the Protestant Christians. His first Destination was to Cassimbazar, for which Place he was to set out after Easter: He was also to visit Calcapore, Muxadabad, and other Places in that Neighbourhood, where there are many Romish Christians of his Acquaintance. With respect however to the Employment of Mr Ramalbete, the SOCIETY, though sensible of Mr Kiernander's great Zeal, and desirous of giving him every possible Proof of it, could by no Means think of taking upon them the Charge of a new Labourer in the Work of the Mission, on Account of the encreasing Expences arising from the two Missionaries whom they have engaged to send out to India; though they cannot but acknowledge themselves greatly indebted to Mr Kiernander for lessening those Expences, in some degree, by remitting to Halle 400 Dollars towards defraying the Charges which should attend the sending out of the Person destined to be his Assistant, and generously engaging to discharge whatever his Journey by Land and Voyage by Sea may amount to above that Sum. With regard to the finishing of Captain Griffin's Accounts, Mr Kiernander writes that it takes up much Time, by reason of the slow Payment of the Bills remitted for that Purpose, and the Difficulty of sending over what has been collected. But if, after all Debts and Legacies are paid off, there should be any Residue for Both Topbillab, which cannot as yet be known, it will suffer no Loss, as the Money lies at Interest in the Company's Cash at 8 per Cent. He doubts not however that Providence will supply the Deficiencies of this Legacy, by stirring up well-disposed Persons to follow the Example of Mrs Mary Handel, a Widow, who had left to the Mission-Church a Legacy of 2000 Arcott Rupees. The Estate indeed had fallen short of what was expected, on account of some Persons being insolvent; so that he had received for the first Dividend, on the 1st of September 1771,

The whole of which was again placed out at the former Interest, on Bond, in the Hands of the same Merchant. Mr Kiernander's Intention is to encrease this little Principal as long as he possibly can, but never to lessen it, and, if need will allow, to make use only of the yearly Interest.

He writes further that, on the 7th of April they had a dreadful Thunder-Storm which struck 4 Houses, one of which was burnt with all that was in it, the People only escaping; the others were but slightly damaged. On the 7th of May a Fire broke out on the East Side of Calcutta, and was by a strong southerly Wind greatly increased, till it had consumed above 1000 Houses belonging mostly to the Bengalers and some Portuguese: It was quenched however in the Evening by a North-West Wind and Rain. And on the 19th of June about Noon they had an Earthquake which caused a subterraneous Noise that proceeded from North to South, and was most perceived in the Houses along the River-side, but, through the Mercy of God, did no Damage.

The Reverend Mr Swartz, in a Letter dated Tanjour Tirutschina-12 Oct. 1772, after acknowledging the Divine Goodness pally. in preserving him and his Fellow-Labourers in tolerable Health and Strength, acquaints the SOCIETY that to the 6 Catechists mentioned in his last, two more had been added, viz. Sattianaden, i. e. Possessor of the Truth, and Abiseganaden, i. e. Christian. These two young Men, who are of the highest Cast, improved so remarkably in Knowledge and Piety, that Mr Swartz conceived great Hopes of their becoming useful in instructing their Brethren, and their continued Behaviour had strengthened his good Opinion of them. His Congregation had received an Addition of 70 Persons, who were partly Gentiles, and partly Roman Catholicks: Care had been taken to ground them well in the Principles of the Protestant Faith, and they had been frequently admonished to practise what they had learnt; and there were some of them who had evidenced the Sincerity of their Faith even in difficult Trials. The English School was kept up in the same Manner as Mr Swartz had mentioned in his last. The Number of Children amounted to 42, 10 of whom were maintained by the Garrison: Some of the Children had been dismissed from the Tamulian School, so that only 20 were then instructed in it.

In the Course of the Year he had several Times visited Tanjour, in order to strengthen the Congregation, and to try whether, by frequently preaching the Word in that populous City, some Impression might be made on the Inhabitants. For this Purpose he took with him three of his Catechists, who went among them Morning and Evening, laying before them the glorious Truths of the Gospel, and inviting them to the Obedience of Faith. Mr Swartz had several Conversations with the King about Religion, who, on the second Day after his Arrival, being informed that he was explaining the Doctrines of Christianity to his Officers, desired to hear him himself: But Mr Swartz had hardly spoken a few Words when the great Braminey (as they call him) came in, before whom the King prostrated himself to the Ground, and afterward stood before him with his Hands folded, while the other placed himself on an elevated Seat. He made Signs to Mr Swartz to talk to the proud Braminey, who heard all with seeming Attention, but without any Reply.

Reply. After this the King asked several Questions concerning Repentance, and desired Mr Swartz to marry a Couple of Christians in his Palace: The Bridegroom was an European, a Captain at Tanjour; the Bride the Daughter of another Captain born of European Parents. He readily consented, and performed the Ceremony in as solemn a Manner as possible. They began with a Hymn, after which Mr Swartz preached a Sermon on a suitable Subject, concluding with a Prayer and another Hymn. The whole was done in the Malabar Language; and the King, together with a great many People, seemed pleased with what they had heard; but the Bramineys looked upon it as a dangerous Innovation.

As Mr Swartz does not want 8 Catechists at Tirutschinapally, he intended to settle some in the Country. For that Purpose he visited Wallam, (a Fort lately taken by the Nabob from the King of Tanjour) and intreated the Commanding Officer, Major Vaughan, to allot him a proper Spot, which he very willingly did; and Mr Swartz intended shortly to return to Wallam, and regulate every Thing as well as he could.

In another Letter, dated Tranquebar, 4 Feb. 1773, he repeats the Profession of his grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness towards him and his Fellow-Labourers, in preserving them in Health, and the more, as there had been and still was an Epidemical Disorder at Tirutschinapally, which had swept away above a thousand Persons in a Fortnight. He then proceeds to acquaint the SOCIETY that, during his Stay at Tanjour in the Month of October preceding, he had had abundant Opportunity of conversing with small and great about the Way that leadeth to everlasting Salvation. He experienced however at the same Time some Opposition: for one Morning as he was explaining the Doctrines of Christianity to a Number of People, a Cottival or Justice of Peace sent for him, and told him He should not preach so publickly unless he could show an Order from the King. Mr Swartz asked the the Officer if he had any Order on his Part to interrupt him in his Business, which he carried on in the Spirit of Meekness, without causing any Disturbance. He answered No: but neither have you, said he, any Authority to preach so publickly. One of the Bramineys was present, who, as Mr Swartz supposes, had stirred the Officer up to that Opposition.

From Tanjour, according to his Intention signified in his former Letter, he went to Wallam, and, as he saw a fair Opportunity of preaching the Gospel in that Place, he determined to station a Catechist there, and now and then to visit the People himself. Accordingly they had begun to build a small House, or rather Hall, for public Worship, several Gentlemen having contributed to the Amount of 20*l*.

In the Monsoon Time some People beyond Colleroon, amounting to about 40, with their Children, desired to be instructed. These Mr Swartz visited himself, and, finding the best Part of the Village inclined to embrace Christianity, he had left two Catechists there, and ordered every Thing for the Building of a small Church, promising to return to them very soon. From thence he went to Tranquebar, to regulate some Affairs relating to his Congregation: And the Day following the Date of his Letter intended setting out for the abovementioned Place, which is about 20 Miles from Tirutschinapally. The Expences of carrying on every Thing decently rises higher and higher; He humbly hopes however that a merciful God will supply all Things that are needful: Nor has his Trust proved to be vain in the LORD; One of the SOCIETY's Members (the Reverend Mr Thomas of Blackbeath) having paid into their Hands 200*l*. to be remitted to Mr Swartz towards the Support of himself and his Catechists.

He concludes with acknowledging the Receipt of the Stores and Presents, and particularly the Benefactions: Concerning Mr Archdeacon Congreve's Scheme, (See the Account Account published 1772) he designs to set about it as soon as his Travels are over, and will beg of God to assist him in accomplishing it: And, as soon as he has executed it, will give an Account of what he has done.

The Reverend the Danish Missionaries, in a Letter dated Tranquebar: 11 Jan. 1773, write the SOCIETY Word that they had all enjoyed Life and Health, except Mr Kobilhoff, who had been so ill that his Life had been despaired of. He had however been so far recovered that he was able to preach about Christmas, and on the 28th of December to ordain Mr Philip; their oldest Catechist in the Town Church, to be one of their Country Priests together with Mr Diego and Mr Ambrose. This Person (in whose History there is something very remarkable) had been kidnapped when he was ten Years old, and brought from his Native Place to Tranquebar, whither his Mother followed, seeking him every where for several Days, but in vain. At length being told that the Mission Church was dedicated to the One true God, she made a Vow that, if he would restore her Son to her within ten Days, they would both become his Servants. Accordingly she found him within the Time, but, unmindful of her Promise, offered a Sacrifice to an Idol, and returned into her own Country. But being reproved in a Dream for having neglected to fulfil her Vow, when she awoke she told the Matter to her Son, and, without conferring with her other Relations, immediately returned to Tranquebar, and after proper Instruction was baptized, together with him and one of his Sisters; after which she ministered for many Years in the Church, teaching the Catechism in private Houses. Philip, having been baptized, was further instructed in the Town School, served one of the Missionaries for some Time, and being thought able to be a Schoolmaster was intrusted with that Office. After this he was employed as a Catechist; and, having shown himself faithful in that Station, they trust he

He will make a good Country Priest. There were present at his Ordination the Governor and other European Gentlemen, and a great many Christians belonging to their Town and Country Congregations. Two reverend Ministers of the Danish Church, named Zion, assisted on the Occasion, together with the Country Priests. He has since taken his first Journey with Rayappen, one of Mr Swartz's Catechists, having set out to visit the Country Congregations to the South.

They had lost two of their Country Labourers, the old Rajanaiken, Catechist in Aventangi, who died suddenly, immediately after having preached to his Congregation, and his Brother Schinnappen, Catechist in Cumbagonam. The Place of the latter was already filled up, but they were still looking out for a proper Person to supply that of Rajanaiken.

Rajanaiken. His Widow they have appointed to teach the Catechism in some Villages near the Town.

In the Month of January 1772 two of the Missionaries, Mr Klein and Mr Koenig, took a Journey to Nagapatnam; and two others, Mr Zeglin and Mr John, did the same in the Month of September following, to preach and administer the Sacrament to some Germans, by which Means some Heathens and Mohammedans had an Opportunity of hearing the Word of Salvation.

The SOCIETY have likewise been favoured with two Letters from the Reverend Mr Professor Freylinghausen, in the first of which, dated 27 July 1772, he writes that thro' the Divine Blessing he had at length found out a young Man, endued not only with a sincere and unfeigned Piety towards God, but with such a Measure of Discretion and Learning as might qualify him for the due Discharge of the Office of a Missionary. His Name was John-Christman Diemer, a Native of Alsatia, who at first studied Divinity for some Years at Strasbourg, from whence he removed to Halle, where, besides pursuing his Theological Studies, he had been employed as a Teacher and Moderator in the Orphan-House. Mr Freylinghausen wishes he could have found another whom he could have recommended to the SOCIETY. But, having as yet been able to provide only one, he submitted it to them, (and they have herein concurred with him) to send this Person as a Colleague to Mr Kiernander, whose Age and Infirmities more urgently call for an Assistant, whom he may train up in the Duties of the Mission, which, it is to be feared, would lose Ground, if there were none at hand to take that Burden upon him in case of Mr Kiernander's Death: Whereas Mr Swartz is both young, and furnished with several able Fellow-Labourers from among the Natives.

The Purport of Mr Freylinghausen's subsequent Letter, dated 27 Nov. 1773, was to introduce Mr Diemer to the SOCIETY, to whom he was accordingly presented on the 7th of December, and the Reverend Mr Bourdillon, who, being then in the Chair, was desired to take upon him that Office, delivered to him the Instructions of the Board in a Latin Oration, a Copy of which they think themselves happy in being able to communicate to their Members and to the Publick, through the Indulgence of that Gentleman, who has kindly favoured them with it at their Request.

TRANSLA-

TRANSLATION of the Foregoing.

Dear BROTHER,

YOU receive through me from this Venerable Board your Appointment to an arduous Task, and such as ought by no means to be rashly entered upon; that, I mean, of preaching and propagating the Gospel of our Saviour CHRIST among barbarous Nations, overspread with the Darkness of Ignorance, given up to abominable Idolatry, and alienated from the true God; of opening to them the Doors of the Kingdom of Heaven, and of bringing them from Error to Truth, from Sin unto Holiness, and from Death unto Life.

But since the celebrated and pious Dr Freylinghausen, a Member to whom this SOCIETY is so deeply indebted, has pronounced you worthy of this high Office; since you have with mature Resolution devoted yourself wholly to the Glory of God and the Salvation of Men, since you owe your safe Arrival in England to an almost miraculous Interposition of Providence†; (which we heartily wish may be to you an Omen of his future Assistance and Protection) what may we not henceforth expect from you? We do not therefore so much exhort you as rejoice at your Call; being well assured that you will take upon you with a willing Mind the sacred Ministry which is committed to you, will exercise it with unwearied Zeal and watchful Diligence, will strengthen it by continual Prayer, and will persevere in it with unshaken Fidelity. Into your Hands is committed the Cause of God and of CHRIST: You are to bring back to Him the Sheep that are lost, to pull down the Altars of the Devil, to unfold the Mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, to make known the Divine

† He had a long, stormy, and very dangerous Passage of three Weeks from Hamburgh to London.

vine Commands; together with those glorious Promises and those Threatenings which are annexed to them, daily to encrease the Number of the Faithful; in a Word, you are diligently to set forth the whole Work of Redemption.

Do not however be cast down at the Extensiveness, the Difficulties of this Ministry: You have at hand the Assistance of a gracious God, the inward Comforts of the Holy Spirit, and the Prospect of a Reward, the Greatness of which may well rouse and animate you, strengthen your Goings, and encourage you not only to attempt every Thing, but to persevere till you accomplish it. Nor are there wanting illustrious Examples, to the Imitation of which you will continually be called, Examples of every Kind, of every Age, and in every Place, as well of the Apostles, as of those who have since trod in their Steps. You have in particular a Colleague*, well skilled in that Christian Warfare, almost worn out with his continual Labours, yet still of a cheerful and courageous Mind, strengthened by long Experience; in whom this SOCIETY highly glory, accounting him worthy of every Commendation, and praising God for having been pleased to lend them such a Servant of his, so great a Friend to Religion, and of such a generous Disposition. See therefore that you love him as a Father, listen to him as a Teacher, look up to him as an Example: And God grant that you may so profit under him as not only to come up with, but even to surpass him.

This SOCIETY expects from you that you will not be too hasty and incautious in admitting Profelytes from the Church of Rome to the Publick Service of the Mission; and that you will entangle yourself as little as possible with the Affairs of this World; but that you will give yourself wholly to preach and explain the Word, to promote the Study of Virtue, to comfort the Afflicted, to visit the Sick,

* The Reverend John Zachary Kiernander, who was called to the Preaching of the Gospel in India An. Dom. 1740.

Sick, to save those Souls which our most merciful Redeemer hath purchased with his Blood. Aspire not to any other Honours, to any other Riches than those which are laid up in Heaven for you. Join to Fervour Moderation, to Zeal Prudence, to Courage Meekness, to Candour Peace and Charity; that you may hereby endear yourself to all Men, and become no little Ornament to the Doctrine of CHRIST. Endeavour by a gentle and patient Mind to lead the Gentiles to hear and embrace the Word of Faith; that those Eastern Nations may behold the Sun of Righteousness in their Horizon, at the Brightness of whose rising they may rejoice with spiritual Joy, and may be thoroughly restored from the fatal Disorders of their Souls.

In a Word, Exercise yourself daily with all your Might to preserve a Conscience pure and void of Offence towards God and towards Men, remembering that dreadful Judgment when the whole Human Race shall appear before the supreme Tribunal, and, whilst the Trumpet shall sound and Angels stand by as Spectators, that Master whom you have served shall be exalted as Judge, and pronounce his final Sentence upon you: which, we most fervently pray may be to all of us full of unspeakable Comfort, and the Basis of our eternal Happiness.

What now remains, Reverend Brother, but that in the Name of our Lord JESUS CHRIST we confirm your Mission to the Indies, most earnestly beseeching Him to ratify it. We now hold forth to you the right Hand of Fellowship, and embrace you with a cordial Affection.

From this SOCIETY, which promises you her Patronage, you may expect all the Tokens of a sincere Affection, all the Assistances of brotherly Union, as far as lies in our Power, so long as you cheerfully discharge the Office committed to your Trust. And we will incessantly offer up our most ardent Prayers to God that he would grant you a prosperous Voyage and a safe Arrival at Bengal, that he would long preserve you in those remote Regions, would endue you with his heavenly Grace, and defend you with his almighty Arm; that he would at all Times prosper your pious Conversations with the Heathens, and all your other Labours and Undertakings; that he would encourage and comfort your Soul with much Success, and at length would grant that, together with the Church Triumphant, supremely blest, and decked with the Crown of Glory, you may to the Father who created us, to the Son who redeemed us, to the Holy Ghost who was the Earnest of our Inheritance, sing endless Praises to all Eternity.

SINCE that Time their new Missionary has embarked for India in one of the Honourable Company's Ships, who at the SOCIETY's Request have kindly granted not only to him, but likewise to the two Children of Mr Kiernander; leave to take their Passage free of all Charge to the Company.

The Stores and Presents have also been sent as usual to their Missionaries through the continued Favour of the Honourable East-India Company; whom the SOCIETY do hereby desire to accept of their heartiest Thanks, in public Testimony of their Gratitude.

Saltzburghers settled at Ebenezer in G E O R G I A, 1773.

THE Reverend Mr Triebner, in a Letter dated 1 June 1774, after expressing his Sense of the Divine Mercy which had favoured him with so good a State of Health for the two last Years that he had been very seldom interrupted in discharging his Duty, acquaints the SOCIETY that the Word of God had made a good Impression on the Minds of many, among whom were some who had before shewn an Aversion to Religion; several secure and profane Persons having, through Sickness and other Afflictions, been brought to an earnest Reflection on the State of their Souls, and convinced of the Necessity of Repentance, and Faith in our Lord JESUS CHRIST.

He thanks the SOCIETY for all Favours, particularly for the kind Present which they had made him of £20, to enable ble him to engage a proper Person to undertake the Care of the School ; but informs them that, notwithstanding all his Endeavours, it had not been in his Power to procure one. A worthy Man, qualified to teach English and German, was not to be found among his People, and he was fearful of entrusting the Children to a Stranger, with whose Principles and Conduct he was not sufficiently acquainted. He had therefore continued to teach them himself, and, if it pleased God to strengthen him, would proceed in the Work as much as the other Duties of the Congregation would permit. He laments however that the poor Circumstances of the Generality of the Parents, who need the Assistance of their Children, particularly in Summer, together with the Want of a faithful Master, who could be employed the whole Day, will not allow of the School's being kept in the Afternoon as well as Morning.

In the Spring of the Year 1773 eighteen young Persons, who had undergone a five Months Preparation, were admitted the first Time to the Lord's Supper, having previously renewed their Baptismal Covenant in the Presence of the Congregation ; and thirteen were admitted in the same manner on Easter-Monday last. Notwithstanding the dissolute Manners which prevail among the Youth of the Province, Mr Triebner has the Pleasure to declare that those of his Congregation show for the most part a sincere Disposition to attend Publick Worship, and to learn good Principles.

In the last Year he baptized 36 Infants, some of whom were of English Parentage, together with 4 Negro ones ; buried 22 Persons, and married 17 Couple. From 35 to 40 Children at Ebenezer, 32 at Bethany, and 20 at Zion were instructed in the Principles of Religion, Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic.

The SOCIETY hereby desire all the foregoing BENEFACTORS to their several Designs, to accept of their most hearty Thanks.

Hatton-Garden, N<sup>o</sup> 105. July 5, 1774.

IN the Year 1763, The SOCIETY, under the Direction of the late worthy Bishop of Mann, opened a Subscription, as was before observed in the GENERAL ACCOUNT, Page 12, for Printing the Bible and Common Prayer, together with Religious Books and Tracts in the Vulgar Tongue of that Island. By the Encouragement they have met with, they have been enabled to print and disperse gratis among the Inhabitants,

2000	Church Catechisms,
1200	Christian Monitors,
2000	Lewis's Catechism,
1000	Copies of the New Testament,
1550	Common Prayers in Octavo,
1000	Ditto in a Lesser Size.

They have also printed and distributed 2000 Copies of the first Volume of the Old Testament as far as the Book of Job; and all the remaining Part, together with the two Apocryphal Books of Wisdom and Ecclesiasticus, has been since printed, and is dispersing as fast as it can pass thro' the Binder's Hands.

The Society have since come to a Resolution of Re-printing 2000 New Testaments, after which, as long as their Fund will hold out, and Benefactions continue to be paid in, they will proceed to supply the Isle of Mann with other good Books and Tracts, or with new Editions of such as have been already published for their Use.

All

All Persons therefore who are disposed further to encourage this charitable Design, are hereby requested to pay or remit their several Contributions to

The Rev. Dr OWEN, Rector of St Olave, Hart-street, F. R. S.	} Treasurers to the SOCIETY.

THE proper FORM by which any Benefaction may be given to the Designs of the Society, to prevent any Doubt or Mistake, is as follows :

ITEM, I A. B. do hereby give and bequeath unto C. D. of _____ and E. F. of _____ the Sum of _____
to be raised and paid by and out of all my ready Money, Plate, Goods, and Personal Effects, which by Law I may, or can charge with the Payment of the same, (and not out of any Part of my Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments) upon Trust, and to the Intent that they, or either of them, do pay the same to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the Time being, of a Voluntary Society, commonly called or known by the Name of, The Society for promoting Christian Knowledge, which first met about the latter end of the Year 1698; and now do, or lately did, hold their Weekly Meetings at their House in Hatton Garden, Holborn: Which said Sum of _____
I desire may be applied towards carrying on the Charitable Designs of the said Society.

N.B. The Variation in this Form of a LEGACY from that formerly printed, is made necessary, on Account of some late unhappy Mistakes in Wills; by which some Legacies have been lost to the Society, and the good Intentions of the Testators have been entirely defeated; because the Sums bequeathed to the Society have been ordered to be raised, or paid out of Lands, or real Estates, which is not now permitted by Law.

 If the Benefactor is pleased to restrain his Charity to any particular Branch of the SOCIETY'S Designs, he may add, either in Great Britain, Palestine, the East-Indies, Georgia, the Menck, or Welsh Impression of the Holy Scriptures.
